What Our Price Includes (at a glance)

Don't be fooled by the appearances of a bargain when it comes to professionally catered events – just what are you getting? You may be surprised to find that other caterers quote on just the food portion; “expected” touches like china, glassware, linens, and the like all come as additional charges to the bottom line. All said, the deal is suddenly not so sweet anymore! We are proud of such a no-nonsense approach and provide you a simple total (An easy to understand “Bottom Line”) that includes everything that makes a formal catering affair truly elegant. Truthfully, comparing items side-by-side like this affirms our approach, one we have stayed with since 1985! We promise that there will be No Hidden Extras!
